Subject: Regarding reimbursement of air fare for journey undertaken on medical grounds by entitled and non-entitled employees.

Sir/ Madam,

References have been received from various field offices seeking clarification regarding the reimbursement of air fare for journey undertaken on medical grounds by entitled and non-entitled employees. The matter was referred to the Ministry of Finance, Department of Expenditure who have clarified that air travel by Government officials (entitled/non-entitled) for undergoing medical treatment on recommendation of Govt. Medical Officer, where the cost of air travel is borne by Government of India, has to be regulated as per DoE's OM No. 19024/1/2009-E.IV dated 13-07-2009.

2. Action may please be taken accordingly.

Yours Faithfully,

(RANJIT SINGH)

Asstt. Comptroller & Auditor General (N)
